VOL. CXXXV—No. 195. ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE SATURDAY, AUGUST 16, 1919. PRICE ONE CENT

P. O. TO TAKE ORDERS FOR ARMY FOOD

Must Be Accompanied By Costs Including Parcel Post Charge

WILL START MONDAY

If Supply is Insufficient Purchasers Get Refund—No Orders Taken for Less Than Amount in Container.

In accordance with a resolution recently passed by Congress providing for the distribution of certain surplus foodstuffs now on hand at the several military subsistence depots by utilizing the parcel post and in accordance with the wishes of the Postmaster General the employees of the local postoffice will Monday start the work of taking orders for the sale of this food and this work will be discontinued August 20.

Inasmuch as the supplies are limited it is the intent of Congress that the same oportunity to purchase be given to all sections of the country. In order to secure the best results and to be certain that the foodstuffs get into the hands of bona fide consumers it is necessary to utilize postoffices as distributing agencies and to leave the individual postmaster some measure of discretion as to the actual consumers to whom sales should be made and in what quantities.

All orders from consumers must be accompanied with the cash, which must include the total cost of the order and parcel-post charges. No special order form for the use of consumers will be provided. Consumers must order in writing and itemize the foodstuffs desired so that postmasters may readily determine the exact charge to be made.

It is announced that carriers in the city or rural delivery service may accept orders in writing. Consumers may keep a copy of the order given to a carrier upon which the carrier will receipt for cash paid. When a carrier turns an order into the main office or station he should be given a receipt for the cash by the postmaster or superintendent of the station. Should there be insufficient supplies to meet the demand, those consumers who fail to receive foodstuffs should be given a refund of the amount paid as soon as possible, or the proper amount should there be a shortage of a part of his order.

In case of bulk supplies, such as flour or rice in bags the postmaster will not accept orders for less tainer, that is postmasters will not than the amount in the original consell a fraction of a bag of rice, a few pounds of flour. No orders will be accepted without the cash in advance.

The prices quoted in the list of the postoffice are the unit costs to the consumer, to which must be added postage at the parcel-post rate on the total gross weight of the order from the Zone Surplus Property Officer at the particular office to which his state is assigned. The exact cost of each item to the consumer can be determined by the postmaster by adding to the "price per can etc."

For instance, an office located in the first or second zone from the supply depot can show that on the first item, bacon packed six 12-pound cans to the case, the price per can to the consumer would be $4.33; the parcel post rate on 102 pounds (the total weight of the case being 5 cents for the first pound and 1 cent for each additional pounds, amounting to a total of $1.06. As there are six cans to the case the proportionate amount to be added to the cost of each can would be 18 cents. on the second item—Beef, corned, packed 48 No. 1 cans to the case—the parcel post rate would be 69 cents on the case in the first and second zones, or 1 1-2 cents per can or 2 cents should a consumer order only one can. These prices should be worked out by each postmaster before publication of any notices, if possible.

All orders from consumers must be accompanied with the cash, which must include the total cost of the order and parcel post charges. No special order form for the use of consumers will be provided. Consumers must order in writing and itemize the food-stuffs desired so that postmasters may readily determine the exact charge to be made.

COAL SITUATION

Washington, Aug. 16.—Investigation of the coal situation by the Senate Interstate Commerce Commission, was authorized by the Senate yesterday.

Without objection or debate, a resolution by Senator Frelinghuysen, Republican, New Jersey, was adopted It provides for the inquiry into production and marketing of coal with a view to ascertaining causes of present high prices.

CHARGED WITH MURDER

Feeling High Against Cornell Student for Disgrace to School

Ithaca, N. Y., Aug. 16.—Donald F. Fether, 21 years old, a Cornell University freshman, is in a cell here today, formally charged with murdering Miss Hazel Crance, the beautiful 18 year old girl who was drowned from a canoe in which Fether was her companion on Cayauga Lake near a canoe in which Fether was her companion on Cayauga Lake near Glenwood, the night of July 19. The girl's body has not been recovered.. The water has been dragged repeatedly.

Feeling against the young student is running high here, and to forestall any attempt to mob violence, city and county authorities were reported to have sworn in special deputies.

Former college associates of Fether have been openly threatening to storm his cell, remove him and wreak vengeance for the shame they claim he has brought upon Cornell. Another faction of Ithacans, friends of the dead girl have also declared Fether will not be permitted to remain behind bars.

"It was an accident," was all the authorities could induce Fether to say after his arrest.

The jury's verdict, if he should be held for trial, may depend upon so small a matter as a knot in the trousers he wore the night of the drowning.

While grappling for the girl's body, one of the searchers brought up Fether's trousers. He had declared that he and Miss Grace, to whom he was said to have been engaged, were locked in each other's arms when the canoe overturned, that they separated in going over the dam, and that while swimming about for 20 minutes hoping to find the girl, he kicked off his trousers to better facilitate his swimming. Those who responded to his cries for help after his futile search, found him trouserless.

When Fether's trousers were discovered they were inside out and the legs were knotted together close to the body. No explanation has been forthcoming from the student as to how the knot could have been tied.

Men grappling for Miss Crance's body stated Thursday that while dragging the lake bottom Thursday night, their hooks encountered some thing heavy which, however, broke loose before reaching the surface. When the hooks were brought up the trousers were found entangled thereon. Fether identified the trousers as his yesterday.

Fether is a son of F. A. Fether, wealthy Los Angeles oil man. The students' parents have been apprised of his arrest and were last night reported to have started for Ithaca.

2,000,000 LBS. OF MEAT HELD IN OHIO

Meat Products Moved To Avoid Penalties, Governor Warns

40 WARRANTS ISSUED

Officers of Big Packing Houses Included in Charges—Denials in Chicago.

Columbus, Ohio, Aug. 16.—Gov. James M. Cox, has wired Assistant United States Attorney General Frank Davis at Washington, that the sheriff Street Market House, Cleveland to avoid Federal penalty is moving its meats products to Chicago warehouses and that records as to previous storage in Cleveland are being destroyed.

While the Governor's telegram did not give the names of companies alleged to be shipping their products to Chicago, his telegram earlier in the day to Attorney-General Palmer said Morris & Co. and Wilson & Co., were owners of part of 2,000,000 pounds of meat alleged to be held in the Cleveland storage house illegally under Ohio laws. Brant & Co., Cleveland, were alleged to own the remainder.

Approximately 40 warrants charging Ohio food dealers with violations of the cold storage law, many of which are against local managers of the big Chicago packing companies were issued by the State of Ohio yesterday and arrests will be made immediately according to Gov. James M. Cox and Atty. Gen. John G. Price. In addition Governor Cox appealed to United States Attorney-General Palmer to seize approximately 2,500,000 pounds of meat and poultry which have been held in cold storage houses longer than the period allowed under the Ohio law.

Chicago, Aug. 16.—Officials of the Monarch Cold-Storage Company, in Chicago, denied yesterday that foodstuffs had been shipped from their plant to a Cleveland cold-storage ware house, reshipped to Chicago, and then forwarded to the Cleveland house again. They said that food never was shipped from Ohio to their plant. They declared that their concern performs a publisc utility servisce and that no record is kept of the locality from where shipments are received or sent. A record of the names of the owners, a description of the commodity and the date of the receipt and delivery is kept, they said.

SUNDAY GAMES

"Violate no Rule of Christianity, Baltimore Judge Rules

Baltimore, Aug. 16.—Efforts of various religious bodies and Sabbatarian associations to invoke a statute passed more than a century and a quarter ago to restrain the Park Commissioners from allowing games to be played in Fairmount Park on Sunday failed when Judge Staake in Court of Commons Pleas No. 5, yesterday refused an injunction to stop the games.

"The pursuits described in the present case violate no rule of Christianity, but on the contrary tend to establish a better manhood, a more effective and forceful citizenship, and divert the mind of youth from vice and immorality," Judge Staake ruled.

Elton J. Buckley, attorney for the Philadelphia Sabbath Association said that an appeal will be made to the Supreme Court to overrule Judge Staake in refusing to enjoin Sunday games in the Park.

Judge Staake followed the precedent established in another Sunday game case, fought out in the courts of this State, and quoted the opinion delivered then, which was:

"The playing of baseball on Sunday is in itself a crime, but it becomes an unlawful act when it interrupts the repose and religious liberty of the community."

REPORT ON AUTO ACCIDENT JULY 12

Death of Six Due in Part to Recklessness Says Report

MADE BY ARMY BOARD

Accident Occurred at South End of Hunting Creek Bridge—Score Manner of Operating Motor Vehicles.

Reckless driving and the dangerous condition of the road between Alexandria and Camp Humphreys, Va., are held to have been responsible for the autoombile accident near the Hunting Creek bridge July 12 last, which caused the death of two officers and four enlisted men of the Army.

Findings to that effect were reached by a board of Army officers, of which Col. Robert P. Howell, Corps of Engineers, was president, which investigated the case. The report of the board is now before Major General P. C. Harris, adjutant general of the Army, for such disiplinary action as may be called for.

According to the report of the board, the accident was due to the attempt of a military police patrol wagon to pass ahead of an automobile truck loaded with passengers, on the narrow concrete road about 200 fet south of the bridge. The patrol wagon struck the front wheels, of the truck and changed its course, with the result that the truck was forced off the concrete onto the steep slope and toppled over, pinning several passengers underneath.

The board says that a certain measure of responsibility for the accident should be attributed to the dangerous manner in which motor vehicles are operated on the road. Special attention is invited to the dangerous condition of the turn along the concrete section of the road.

The report says the conditions are such that if a machine gets one wheel off the concrete it is impossible get it back without great difficulty, "and a large, topheavy vehicle moving at even a moderate rate of speed is almost certain to overturn before it can be stopped."

The board found that the death in the case of each and every officer and enlisted man "was in the line of duty." It also took occasion to command First Lieut. C. R. Pierce and Sergt. S. A. Dashiell for rescue work.

SAVES DAYLIGHT LAW

Wilson Vetoes Bill to Repeal Time Adjustment by Government

President Wilson yesterday vetoed an act to repeal the daylight saving law, giving as his principal reason the need for increased production.

The President wrote to the House:

"I return this bill, H.R. 3854, 'an act for the repeal of the daylight saving law, without my signature, but do so with the utmost reluctance. I realize the very considerable and, in some respects, very serious, inconveniences to which the daylight saving law subjects the farmers of the country to whom we owe the greatest consideration, and who have distinguished themselves during these recent years of war and want by patriotic endeavor worthy of all praise. But I have been obliged to balance one set of disadvantages against another and to venture a judgment as to which were the more serious for the country. The immediate and pressing need of the country is production, increased and increasing production, on all lines of industry."

Advocates of the daylight saving law were confident last night that they could muster enough votes in the House to sustain President Wilson's second veto of the repeal bill.

THE PASSING BOOK STORE

An editorial in the New York Times recently feeling lamented the passing of the book store.

The Times assigns certain conditions as causes for the gradual passing of the bookstore, but the principal reason seems to be the lack of taste for reading which is so much in evidence in this busy age of the world.

Proprietors of new and second-hand bookstores in the large cities are Arabians—that is they are liable to fold their tents at any time and steal away or embark in other channels of trade. Three were recently located on Eleventh street, between Pennsylvania avenue and E street, Washington. They vanished almost in a night.

Bookstores, new and second-hand, are stable institutions in London. They flourish in many places on the Strand, Regent street, Piccadilly and other thoroughfares, and are liberally patronized.

The father of Doctor Samuel Johnson was a bookseller. He disposed of his stock from a stall in the Litchfield market area. For many years he appeared on market days with his collections. On one occasion the old man was indisposed and unable to take his accustomed position, and he requested his son Samuel to take his place in the market. The youngster flatly refused. His father subsequently paid the debt of nature. Johnson, after he became famous, was often troubled by recollection of his refusal to go to the market at the request of his aged father, and once a year the great scholar repaired to the market area in Litchfield and took position at the spot where his father sold books. As he grew older and a new generation appeared in Litchfield this now elderly man annually attracted attention by standing bareheaded sometimes while lightning was flashing and rain falling. But few could explain his actions. He was doing penance.

Conscience, that Divine witness in the human soul, grinds slowly, but exceeding fine.

WAR ON THE MOSQUITO

The still warm nights of August bring myriads of mosquitos to add to the discomfort of the genus home. Last night was propitious for the lively insect.

Dr. E. L. Flanagan is now engaged in studying conditions in different sections of the state where this pest abounds, and his observations apply to Alexandria, where mosquitos are in evidence as soon as warm weather prevails.

Dr. E. L. Flanagan says large numbers of the mosquitos are hatched in rain barrels, tin cans, watering troughs and artificial containers of many kinds in the back yards and around the doors of houses.

There are many natural breeding places of the malaria bearing mosquitos in most communities.

In speaking of the control of mosquitos Dr. Flanagan says: "There are no breeding places in the community that cannot be controlled by one or more of the known methods of preventing mosquitos. A large percentage of the annoyance suffered by people can be obviated by every householder seeing that there is no water remaining in artificial containers to cause the "wrigglers" to appear. Pour a little kerosene oil in the rain barrels. In regard to the natural breeding places of the anopheles, or malarial mosquito, the matter of control is a little more difficult, but it can be done. The first thing needed is to open up the streams and clean off the banks, and where the waetr is sluggish add oil by the installation of automatic oil drips. With proper co-operation and a small expenditure of money every community can be made mosquito free and malaria kept out.

THE AGONY MAY SOON BE OVER

It will afford the great mass of people in the United States some relief to know that the peace treaty will soon be one of the things of the past so far as the United States is concerned. It has hung long in Congress, but those in positions to know say that the end is at last in sight.

The Schleswig-Holstein matter which arose out of Germany's predatory act of robbery in filching these places from Denmark was before the diplomatic world so long that the great bulk of people knew nothing about the issue and cared less. A member of the British cabinet was once asked to give an epitome of the controversy. He replied: "For many years but two men understood the matter,—the late Lord —and myself. The first named is dead, and I have forgotten the origin of the trouble."

It is to be hoped the peace treaty will not meet a similar fate.

It is now said that inasmuch as more than twenty Republican members of the Senate will vote for quick ratification of the treaty, with reservations, there is a prospect of a early termination of the bitter fight over the League of Nations covenant, forming a very important part of the pact. Forty-four Democrats are counted upon to stand for ratification and these, with the support of Republican reservationists will more than make up the required sixty-four votes. Frequent conferences between Democrats and Republicans seem to indicate a willingness on both sides to agree upon some reservations.

Senator Hitchcock has told President Wilson he expects the treaty to be out of the Foreign Relations Committee within the next ten or twenty days.

Cruiser Basilicata Sunk at Entrance to Suez Canal—Casualties Reported Heavy.

London, Aug. 16.—A dispatch to the Daily Mail from Suez reported today that the Italian warship Basilicata had been sunk at the entrance of the Suez Canal by an internal explosion. Heavy casualities were reported.

MUST NOT ALTER TREATY

President Wilson, late yesterday afternoon, issud orders to his lieutenants in the Senate to begin at once a vigorous drive against any attempt to amend the peace treaty or to alter it by substantial reservations.

The President told Senator Hitchcock, whom he summoned to the White House, that the adoption of any kind of amendment would cause the United States to go back to Germany, "that in hand," to get acceptance of the alterations. If this should become necessary, the President intimated that he would refuse to be a party to the negotiations and would send Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, of Massachusetts, and Philander C. Knox, of Pennsylvania, to Berlin to negotiate the new treaty.

The view of the President is that if the Senate amends the treaty, Germany will take advantage of the changes to bargain for greater leniency in the conditions imposed upon her by the treaty now existing.

Senator Hitchcock announced after his interview with the President that early next week he will address the Senate to point out the dangers which will confront the United States, as the President views them, in the event that the treaty should be amended. Entire confidence is expressed by Senator Hitchcock that when the President's views are fully explained there will be no further talk of amending the treaty nor of adopting reservations of a substantial character.

CONSTIPATION

And Sour Stomach Caused This Lady Much Suffering. Black-Draught Relieved.

Meadorsville, Ky.,—Mrs. Pearl Patrick, of this place, writes: "I was very constipated. I had sour stomach and was so uncomfortable. I went to the doctor. He gave me some pills. They weakened me and seemed to tear up my digestion. They would gripe me and afterwards it seemed was more constipated than before.

I heard of Black-Draught and decided to try it. I found it just what I needed. It was an easy laxative, and not bad to swallow. My digestion soon improved. I got well of the sour stomach, my bowels soon seemed normal, no more griping, and I would take a dose now and then, and was in good shape.

I cannot say too much for Black-Draught for it is the finest laxative one can use."

Thedford's Black-Draught has for many years been found of great value in the treatment of stomach, liver and bowel troubles. Easy to take, gentle and reliable in its action leaving no bad after-efects, it has won the praise of thousands of people who have used it.

NOT AN ISOLATED CASE

Many Similar Cases in Alexandria and Vicinity

This Alexandria man's story given here is not an isolated case by any means; week after week, year after year, our neighbors are telling similar good news.

H. J. Duner, policeman 310 North Columbus Street, Alexandria, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills off and on for a good many years and have always had good results. Before I tried them I was troubled a great deal with pains in the small of my back, which were so bad I could hardly bend over sometimes. I had miserable headaches and dizzy spells, too. The kidney secretions passed too freely. I am glad to say that since I have used Doan's Kidney Pills I have been free from all that trouble and have felt a great deal better in every way. I am not afraid of my back hurting. I use a few of Doan's once in awhile and they keep my kidneys in fine shape."

They simply can't make tires good enough to prevent tread cuts. And a tread cut means trouble. If neglected the result is a "blowout," sooner or later. The sooner you get an injured tire to us the better—but there's no blow out too bad for us to fix—Right.

To Our Patrons

Alexandria, Va., June 2, 1919.

In line with our progressive banking methods, and to meet the demands of our patrons, we are installing on July 1st, an up-to-date Safe Deposit Department, under the personal supervision of one of our officers.

This has been made necessary from the fact that a large number of our depositors owning Liberty Bonds and other securities desire a safe place for their keeping.

It is our plan to enlarge the number of Safe Deposit Boxes, and make a rental charge to meet the operating expenses of this Department. This charge will become effective July 1st, 1919, and a bill will be sent out at that time to the holders of boxes, and if any desire to make any change we will be glad to have them call before the bills are rendered for the ensuing year.

STRIKE EPIDEMIC

Many Industries Involved Than Ever in Labor Union History

New York, Aug. 16.—More industries are affected by strikes now going on or threatened in this city and throughout the country than ever before in the history of labor unions, according to figures compiled by labor leaders and made public Besides the actors and railroad shopmen those now on strike in New York include painters, plasterers, machinists, carpenters, shopmen of the Brooklyn Union Gas Company, cigarmakers, brass workers, shirt makers, furriers, brass bed makers, umbrella makers and art lamp workers.

Although it has attracted little public attention, the cigarmakers' strike is the largest numerically. According to union estimates, 120,000 cigarmakers are on strike.

Last night one of the most important strikes threatened yesterday was that of the motormen employed on the subway and elevated lines of the Interborough Rapid Transit Company. The men declare they will walk out Sunday morning unless a wage increase of 50 per cent is granted instead of the 10 per cent announced Wednesday.

Other strikes threatened are by workers in the entire building trades, workers in the entire clothing industry, postal clerks and letter carriers, teamsters, rag pickers, and mattress workers.

A nation wide building strike, taking 1,500,000 men out of work, was threatened in a statement issued by 27 international heads of labor unions. The trouble is the outgrowth of charges that building contractors employ nonunion labor.

COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA

OFFICE OF

CLERK OF THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS to the Constitution of Virginia, agreed to at session of General Assembly 1918, and published in pursuance of section 196 of the Constitution and act approved February 3, 1908.

A RESOLUTION proposing amendment to section 32 of article 2 of the Constitution of Virginia, and providing for publishing said amendment and certifying the same to the next general assembly.

Resolved by the senate, the house of delegates concurring (a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing), That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia, be, and the same is hereby, proposed, and referred to the general assembly to be chosen at the next general election of members of the house of delegates, for its concurrence, in conformity with the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-six, of article fifteen of the said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia section thirty-two, which is in the following words:

Sec. 32. Every person qualified to vote shall be eligible to any office of the State, or of any county, city, town or other subdivision of the State, wherein he resides, except as otherwise provided in this Constitution, and except that this provision as to residence shall not apply to any office elective by the people where the law provides otherwise. Men and women eighteen years of age shall be eligible to the office of notary public, and qualified to execute the bonds required of them in that capacity.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Sec. 32. Every person qualified to vote shall be eligible to any office of the State, or of any county, city, town or other subdivision of the State, wherein he resides, except as otherwise provided in this Constitution, and except that this provision as to residence shall not apply to any office elective by the people where the law provides otherwise; and except, further, that the requirements of this section as to residence and voting qualifications shall not apply in the appointment of persons to fill positions under a municipal government requiring special technical or professional training and experience. Men and women eighteen years of age shall be eligible to the office of notary public and qualified to execute the bonds required of them in that capacity.

A RESOLUTION proposing amendment to section 138 of the Constitution of Virginia.

Resolved by the senate, the house of delegates concurring, (a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing), That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia be, and the same is hereby proposed, and referred to the general assembly to be chosen at the next general election of members of the house of delegates, for its concurrence, in conformity with the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-six, of article fifteen, of the said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia section one hundred and thirty-eight, which is in the following words:

Section 138. The general assembly may, in its discretion provide for the compulsory education of children between the ages of eight and twelve years, except such as are weak in body or mind, or can read and write, or are attending private schools, or are excused for cause by the district school trustees.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Section 138. The general assembly may, in its discretion, provide for the compulsory education of children of school age.

A RESOLUTION proposing amendment to section 117 of article 8 of the Constitution of Virginia, and providing for publishing said amendment and certifying the same to the next general assembly.

Resolved by the senate and the house of delegates (a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing thereto), That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia be, and the same is hereby, proposed and referred to the general assembly to be chosen at the next general election of senators and members of the house of delegates, for its concurrence, in conformity to the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-six of article fifteen of said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia section one hundred and seventeen, which is in the words and figures following, to-wit:

Section 117. General laws for the organization and government of cities and towns shall be enacted by the general assembly, and no special act shall be passed in relation thereto, except in the manner provided in article four of this Constitution, and then only by a recorded vote of two-thirds of the members elected to each house; and except also in the case of cities having more than fifty thousand inhabitants, as hereinafter provided. But each of the cities and towns of the State having at the time of the adoption of this amendment a municipal charter may retain the same, except so far as it shall be repealed or amended by the general assembly; provided, that every such charter is hereby amended so as to conform to all the provisions, restrictions, limitations and powers set forth in this article, or otherwise provided in this Constitution.

Notwithstanding, however, anything in this article contained the general assembly may, by general law or by special act (passed as prescribed in article four of this Constitution), depart in any respect (except as otherwise in this section expressly provided) from the form of organization and government prescribed by this article for cities and towns, and may provide, from time to time, for the various cities and towns of the Commonwealth such form or forms of municipal government as the general assembly may deem best; but no form or forms of government authorized by the second paragraph of this section shall become operative except as to such cities or towns as may thereafter adopt the same by a majority vote of its qualified electors at an election to be held as may be prescribed therefor by law. All the limitations on the powers of the councils of cities and towns imposed by this article shall apply in like manner to the principal legislative authority under any form of government which may be authorized hereunder. The term "council" as used in sections one hundred and twenty-five and one hundred and twenty-seven of this Constitution shall be construed to include the body which, under any form of municipal government, shall be vested with the principal legislative authority of such municipality.

The general assembly, for the purpose of this article, may classify cities according to their population but the maximum population prescribed for any class shall exceed the minimum population for the same class by at least ten thousand. The general assembly, at the request, made in manner which may be prescribed by law, of any city having a population of over fifty thousand inhabitants, may grant a special form of government for such city.

Any laws or charters enacted pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be subject to the provisions of this Constitution relating expressly to judges and clerks of courts, attorneys for the Commonwealth, commissioners of revenue, city treasurer and city sergeants.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Sec. 117. (a) General laws for the organization and government of cities and towns shall be enacted by the general assembly, and no special act shall be passed in relation thereto, except in the manner provided in article four of this Constitution, and then only by a recorded vote of two-thirds of the members elected to each house. But each of the cities and towns of the State having at the time of the adoption of this Constitution a municipal charter may retain the same, except so far as it shall be repealed or amended by the general assembly: provided, that every such charter is hereby amended to conform to all the provisions, restrictions, limitations and powers set forth in this article, or otherwise provided in this Constitution.

(b) The general assembly may, by general law or by special act, (passed in the manner provided in article four of this Constitution) provide for the organization and government of cities and towns without regard to, and unaffected by any of the provisions of this article, except those of sections one hundred and twenty-four, one hundred and twenty-five, (except so far as the provisions of section one hundred and twenty-five recognize the office of mayor and the power of veto) one hundred and twenty-six one hundred and twenty-seven and one hundred and twenty-eight of this article and except those mentioned in sub-section (d) of this section. The term "Council" as used in any of said sections shall include the body exercising legislative authority for the city or town, and all ordinances enacted and resolutions adopted by such body shall have the same force and effect for all purposes, as if enacted or adopted in accordance with the provisions of section one hundred and twenty-three of this article. But such organization and government shall apply only to such cities or towns as may thereafter adopt the same by a majority vote of those qualified voters of any such city or town voting in an election to be held for the purpose, as may be provided by law.

(c) The general assembly, at the request of any city or town made in manner provided by law, may grant to it any special form of organization and government authorized by sub-section (b) of this section, and subject to all of the provisions of that sub-section, except that it shall not be necessary for such city or town to thereafter adopt the same.

(d) Any laws or charters enacted pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be subject to the provisions of this Constitution relating expressly to judges and clerks of courts, attorneys for the Commonwealth, commissioners of revenue, city treasurers and city sergeants.

(e) Any form of organization and government authorized by any provision of this section which may have been adopted heretofore by any city or town pursuant to any act of the general assembly enacted before such provision became effective, and which is now in operation, is hereby declared legal and valid ab initio, and shall have the same force and effect as if it had been authorized by this Constitution at the time of its adoption.

A RESOLUTION proposing amendment to section 133 of article 9 of the Constitution of Virginia.

Resolved by the house of delegates, the senate concurring (the majority of the members elected to each house agreeing thereto), That the following amendment to section one hundred and thirty-three, article nine of the Constitution of Virginia, be and is hereby, proposed and referred to the general assembly at the first regular session held after the next general election of members of the house of delegates for its concurrence in conformity with the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-six, of article fifteen of said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia section one hundred and thirty-three of article nine, which is in the following words:

Section 133. Each magisterial district shall constitute a separate school district, unless otherwise provided by law. In each school district there shall be three trustees selected, in the manner and for the term of office prescribed by law.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Section 133. Each magisterial district shall constitute a separate school district, unless otherwise provided by law. In each school district there shall be not more than three trustees selected, in the manner and for the term of office prescribed by law.

Men and women may serve as school trustees in said districts, and in cities and in towns forming separate school districts.

A RESOLUTION proposing amendment to section 184 of the Constitution of Virginia.

Resolved by the house of delegates, the senate concurring (a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing) That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia be, and the same is hereby proposed and referred to the general assembly to be chosen at the next general election of members of the house of delegates, for its concurrence, in conformity with the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-six, of article fifteen of the said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia section one hundred and eighty-four, which is in the following words:

Section 184. No debt shall be contracted by the State except to meet casual deficits in the revenue, to redeem a previous liability of the State, to suppress insurrection, repel invasion, or defend the State in time of war. No scrip, certificate, or other evidence of State indebtedness, shall be issued except for the transfer or redemption of stock previously issued, or for such debts as are expressly authorized in this Constitution.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Section 184. No debt shall be contracted by the State except to construct, or reconstruct, public roads, to meet casual deficits in the revenue, to redeem a previous liability of the State, to suppress insurrection, repel invasion, or defend the State in time of war. No scrip, certificate, or other evidence of State indebtedness, shall be issued except for the transfer or redemption of stock previously issued, or for such debts as are expressly authorized in this Constitution.

A RESOLUTION proposing an amendment to section 136 of article 9 of the Constitution of Virginia, and providing for publishing said amendment and certifying the same to the next session of the general assembly.

Resolved by the house of delegates, the senate concurring (a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing), That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia be, and the same is hereby, proposed and referred to the general assembly to be chosen at the next general election of members of the house of delegates, for its concurrence, in conformity with the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-six, of article fifteen of the said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia section one hundred and thirty-six, which is in the following words:

Section 136. Each county, city, town, if the same be a separate school district, and school district is authorized to raise additional sums by a tax on property, not to exceed in the aggregate five mills on the dollar in any one year, to be apportioned and expended by the local school authorities of said counties, cities, towns and districts in establishing and maintaining such schools as in their judgment the public welfare may require; provided that such primary schools as may be established in any school year, shall be maintained at least four months of that school year, before any part of the fund assessed and collected may be devoted to the establishment of schools of higher grade. The boards of supervisors of the several counties and the councils of the several cities, and towns if the same be separate school districts, shall provide for the levy and collection of such local school taxes.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Section 136. Each county, city, town, if the same be a separate school district, and school district is authorized to raise additional sums by a tax on property, not to exceed in the aggregate in any one year a rate of levy to be fixed by law, to be apportioned and expended by the local school authorities of said counties, cities, towns and districts in establishing and maintaining such schools as in their judgment the public welfare may require; provided that such primary schools as may be established in any school year, shall be maintained at least four months of that school year, before any part of the fund assessed and collected may be devoted to the establishment of schools of higher grade. The boards of supervisors of the several counties, and the councils of the several cities, and towns if the same be separate school districts, shall provide for the levy and collection of such local school taxes.

I hereby certify that the foregoing is a true copy of amendments proposed to the Constitution and agreed to by the General Assembly of Virginia, session 1918, and the same is published in pursuance of section 196 of the Constitution and act of the General Assembly, approved February 3, 1908.

RIOTING AMONG STRIKERS

Troopers of State Constabulary Called to Quell Trouble at Butler, Pa.

Butler, Pa., Aug. 16.—Rioting broke out yesterday among striking workmen at the Standard Steel Car plant here, and because of the threatening situation troopers of the State Constabulary were summoned.

This is the tenth day of the strike and the first that any disturbance has developed.

The rioting was between several thousand striking shopmen and 500 non union workers.

The strikers atacked the nono-union men with clubs as they were about to enter the plant. A dozen persons were injured, and the situation soon got beyond control of the local police and deputies who were on guard at the plant.

Upon the arrival of the State police the strikers withdrew from the zone surrounding the plant, but feeling was said to be running high. Up to noon, however, there had been no new outbreak.

Chicago, Aug. 16.—It was reported here yesterday that the 18,000 members of the Allied Iron and Steel Workers' Union employed in the South Chicago mills voted yesterday by a majority of nearly 200 to 1 to authorize their national officers to call a strike if necessary to enforce their demands for higher wages, shoter hours and improved working conditions.

FOUND—A key on the street today by Mr. E .E. Downham was sent to the Gazette Office and owner may have same by cost of this advertisement. 195-1c.

CONSUMERS MADE TO PAY

Stores Found They Could Get Any Price They Asked During Conflict

Washington, Aug. 16.—While the Government was urging the public to "win the war" retail food dealers in Washington were taking it out on the consumer, fixing prices on the basis of market value" instead of on the basis of actual cost, maintaining the high level in spite of declining wholesale markets until the armistice was signed and the agitation against the high cost of living forced them lower their quotations, and charging the consumer with an amount sufficient to place upon his shoulders the burden of the excess profits tax levied by the Government.

These facts stand out prominently, as retailer after retailer testifies before the Senate subcommittee which is investigating the high cost of living, in the city of Washington.

"If the war had kept up," said on large dealer, "we would have made more money than was ever made in the grocery business, because we could get any price we wanted for our goods. The war is over, though, hence the demand in Washington is less, and the people are kicking so we've got to try and hold prices down to do business.
